

Jordi: Man I am so done with all of this

Evil: You need help there?

Jordi: Ah no, not you again!

Evil: What do you mean not you again?

Evil: I was the only person that was there for you the entire time when you felt bad.

Jordi: Oh yeah? You were there?

Jordi: That's funny, cause the last time you was here, all I felt was depressed and I wanted to kill myself. Do you call that being there for me?

Evil: Well, at least I helped you get your frustration out didn't I?

Evil: (Evil laugh) C'mon don't act like a little boy. You know how this goes by now.

Jordi: Yes, I know what was going on all this time, but I want it different now and I don't want you to take over. So just leave!

Evil: Ah no, look. You realize, I am the only person that hears you and you are the only person that hears me. But if I flip the switch...

Jordi taken over: I became you. So, just let me take over now. And we'll see what happens when you take that rage and show you feel.... (Evil laugh)

Evil: You're weak I control you...
